

GUIDELINES FOR THE SUBMISSION OF WORK-IN-PROGRESS PAPERS

- Note that it is the authors' responsibility to ensure that the information on the title page, as well as the title of the abstract, is correct and complete. The IBC Organising Committee will take no responsibility for incorrect information submitted.
- Take note that Work-in-Progress papers must be between 750 and 1 000 words.
- WIP papers must be submitted on the IBC Work-in-Progress submission section at internationalbusinessconference.com/work-in-progress-paper-submission, in MS Word format and conform to the above guidelines.
- The Programme Committee will review WIP papers.
- Accepted final WIP papers must be in MS Word format and include all the above details.
- A Work-in-progress booklet will be published; however, note that this cannot be used for subsidy claims. Only competitive papers qualify for subsidy claims.
- Technical requirements: Download the IBC approved template at IBC-Work-in-Progress-Paper-Template.
- Final accepted WIP papers must be emailed to Ms Christine Bronkhorst at IB-Conference@nwu.ac.za.
